Laleh June Galerie is pleased to present a new exhibition of works by Swiss artist Philippe Zumstein. The exhibition brings together works selected by Philippe Zumstein (new and recent). The works reveal the form and material - Zumstein's distinctive use of industrial materials since end of 1990s, such as polymirror, plywood, aluminium, glass, steel and car paint -. The exhibition include Philippe Zumstein's Crash wall-mounted car paint and thermoforming in different colours and combination of materials, a group of Sliding paintings acrylic and glass and Compostion Modulaire I, II, and III sculptures in steel polymirror.

PHILIPPE ZUMSTEIN was born in 1973 in Biel/Bienne, Switzerland. BA in Art History at the University of Geneva in 1997 and MA at HEAD Geneva in 2002. Philippe Zumstein has started to exhibit his first Fat Paintings, Crash and Damage series and sculptures in very early 2000s. Since then Zumstein's work was part of significant Swiss exhibitions and Swiss Art Awards. In 2003 he was lauréat of Prix Kiefer Hablitzel and Swiss Art Awards. The artist's work since 2008 was featured in various solo and group exhibitions at the Laleh June Galerie in Switzerland and internationally. Philippe lives and works in Geneva, Switzerland.
