Laleh June is pleased to present High Heels. Throughout the ages the High-heeled shoe has gone through many shifts in style and symbolism. From the times of Persian men to the extravagant chopines of sixteenth-century Italy till the elegant stilettos of the twenty first-century, High Heels had always an enduring place in our popular imagination for both women and men and its relation with art and fashion (artists and designers). The group exhibition High Heels at Laleh June Galerie will include works by five Swiss and international artists living and working in Switzerland, UK and America. The artists using a range of mediums, such as photography, video, installation, textile and couture.
